

AGATHA RUIZ DE LA PRADA BABY

Agatha Ruiz de la Prada Baby still gives its endless charm to the child fashion world, with the Summer '15 collection that is wrapped in casual colours and shapes.

This new collection goes from its classic look, to the more evolved chic. We combine the most functional fabrics with the finest ones. Simple and balanced shapes. Colours with a distinct style and adorned with the most representative and renewed icons of the brand.

Our garments are made with heart, taking care the quality and focusing on the continued encouragement of senses and comfort our children.

The knitted outer line of this collection arises with a renewed style, for special occasions. We can see the richness of their textiles: voile, satin, poplin, linen, knit and coloured denim stand out the role of his printed icons on the basis of usual colours: fuchsia, yellow, coral, red, and multicoloured prints.

The baht line is colourful and with sailors elements. It suggests an atmosphere for both genders: bikini, knickers, maillots, dresses, bonds, boxer shorts, T-shirts and caps. We have developed them with smooth knit fabric and elastane over multicoloured background and funny graphs.

Agatha Ruiz de la Prada Baby has got a style that surrounds and attracts. A world that make us feel emotions from childhood.
